

River

Psalm 46

When the strong winds blow
And the waters rise
When the mountains crumble at our feet
As the earth gives way
We shall not fear
For the help of the Lord is near

His promises shall never be unmade
Though we wait we do not wait in vain

There is a river whose streams flow down
There is a city that will stay
God will help her at the break of day

Though nations war
Though kingdoms fall
If he lifts his voice
the whole earth would melt
He will break their guns
He will stop our bombs
He will bring peace
and send the soldiers home

Author: Peter La Grand

©2008

CCLI# 5706095