

When I'm Gone

When I'm gone, cry for me
This is not how it's meant to be
I know now you feel death's sting
The victory goes to the enemy
When I'm gone , oh-oh

When I'm gone raise a glass
Make a toast there right by the casket
'Cause I can do now what you're not able
I'm Drinkin' good red wine at heaven's table
I am home, oh-oh

So when I'm gone, shed a tear
But grieve in hope, friend, don't grieve in fear
'Cause what you see now is not the end
When heaven comes to earth the feast begins

Let heaven come, oh-oh
Let the Kingdom come, oh-oh

"When I'm Gone" words and music by Jill McFadden
©2013 Ordinary Time Music
CCLI# 6418100